News from the Library

Parents! We need book fair volunteers!! Help us celebrate reading by supporting our upcoming Scholastic BOGO Book Fair on April 18-29. The first week, students will preview the books during fixed library times; the second week students will be able to purchase books. Please do not send students with money the first week as cash registers will not be set up. Parents, if you are interested in working at the book fair, please sign up using: MES Book Fair Volunteers

Volunteers Needed! Hosting a book fair is rewarding, but it takes many hours of pre-planning and organization. If you are interested in volunteering for our Scholastic BOGO Book Fair during the week of April 18-29, please sign up here: MES Scholastic Book Fair Volunteers

Also, we are looking for a parent interested in being a book fair "co-sponsor" with Mrs. Price. Duties include: pre-planning dates, contacting parent volunteers, dedicating an entire week of training parents on the register and/or helping students make good choices, helping with restock orders and finally, being there on the last day to tear down the book fair. It's a lot of work for one person, and we would appreciate someone who is willing to dive in and help create a book fair that students will remember for years to come. If interested, please email dana.hochstedler@mvcsc.k12.in.us at your earliest convenience.
